Reductions of One-Fourth —A Third—A Half

Bright and early Monday morning, dozens of women were here for the purpose of buying suits at sale prices. We were forced to deny them the privilege because the great four day sale of last week closed Saturday night. Many of the good women, in fact all of them, had good reasons for being tardy or late, but this store is as particular about keeping its word as it is about never overestimating quality and never to overstate the price. "Madam, we are sorry, but the sale is over." That was all we could say to our best friends. Tuesday brought still more of the disappointed, and when a woman entered the store Wednesday and said she had traveled across the state to get a suit and other things for Summer, we promised her and many others that we would.

Re-Open Our Most Original Sale of Women's and Misses' Suits at 8 o'Clock Friday Morning
